

COACH ROAD INSURANCE

Owner Joan Paglieroni brought more than 40 years experience in the insurance industry with her when she opened the doors of Coach Road Insurance agency in 1988. The agency offers personal and commercial coverage products including automobile, homeowners, general and professional liability, umbrella policies and workers compensation. The staff at Coach Road knows how confusing, albeit necessary, such products can be, and takes that extra step to make sure customers actually understand what they are buying. A reputation for excellent service and professionalism all around makes doing business with Coach Road Insurance a comfortable and refreshing experience.